WE DEDICATE

THE '66 TESORO TO

DR. STEPHAN

*It's been a year
in Gymnasium this year.
Hope we get the class.
Don't give the girls too bad
a time.
Dave*

A sprained ankle... charlie horse... disabled shoulder! And who's the man behind the scenes?

Rooting at every game, offering a few words of encouragement, and unselfishly devoting his time to injured players, Dr. Stephan is probably Rio's most valuable person around. He's the type of person that every school wishes for and every school should have.

A native Californian, Dr. Stephan attended the University of California, where he earned his medical degree. He interned in Boston, Massachusetts, and then returned to California. Dr. Stephan served his military years in Los Angeles and in 1950 came to Sacramento where he started his practice.

He has resided here for fifteen years, and during this time has become an active member in Boy Scouts. Two of his favorite hobbies are fishing and hunting which Dr. Stephan enjoys in his limited, but well-deserved spare time.

Our many thanks to someone who has dedicated himself to our school.

Maybe I am

FOREWORD

But I haven't attacked you yet
But I'll get you
one of these days
when you least expect it!

YOU are the subject of this book; YOU have helped to build it and make it. The silhouettes that are carried throughout this yearbook have been done to show YOU in various situations that have occurred on, or around, our campus during this past school year.

During 1965-1966 YOU were part of Rio Americano's fantastic growth in student body enrollment--nearly 1200. Expansion took place all around. The faculty doubled and our first year in varsity competition took place with the addition of Juniors. A new gym and swimming pool were also added and ready for use at the start of the school year.

YOU have helped by adding one more distinguished year to Rio Americano's great future.

Have a bitch
summer
snow you will.
Stay sweet & cuddly & remember me.

Love you,
Norma

DR. FERD J. KIESEL
Superintendent

Who decides school policies? Who decides what classes are to be taught, which teachers are to be hired, and how district money is to be spent?

SUPERINTENDENTS

Nine men are burdened with these tasks. These men make up the San Juan Unified School District Board of Directors.

Twice a month the Board of Education meets to discuss and vote on school regulations, new building constructions and any other pertinent policies which effect the district. This board is made up of five community leaders who are elected by the people for a four-year term. It also includes three assistant superintendents and the superintendent, who is selected on a majority vote by the district board.

In addition to carrying out policies adopted by the board, Dr. Kiesel prepares and administers the budget. He develops and generally directs the instructional program, including the prescribed course of study, selects the staff (certified and non-certified) and recommends their employment, retention and dismissal.

Change is inevitable; progress is each persons individual responsibility.

What progress have you made this year? Have you made a valid attempt to improve your knowledge, attitude and talent? Or have you coasted through the school year with no changes in these fundamental attributes?

You have been provided with an excellent opportunity to learn. What you have done with this opportunity is your specific responsibility. Will you be able to say to your children, "I did my best?" You are the only person who can truthfully answer this question.

A quotation which has served as a guide to me in all my years as a student, teacher, administrator, parent and neighbor to my fellowman is: "I shall pass through this world but once. Any good therefore I can do or any kindness that I can show to any human being, let me do now. Let me not deter or neglect it, for I shall not pass this way again."*

Yesterday will never return, tomorrow can be better, today we must face ourselves for what we really are.

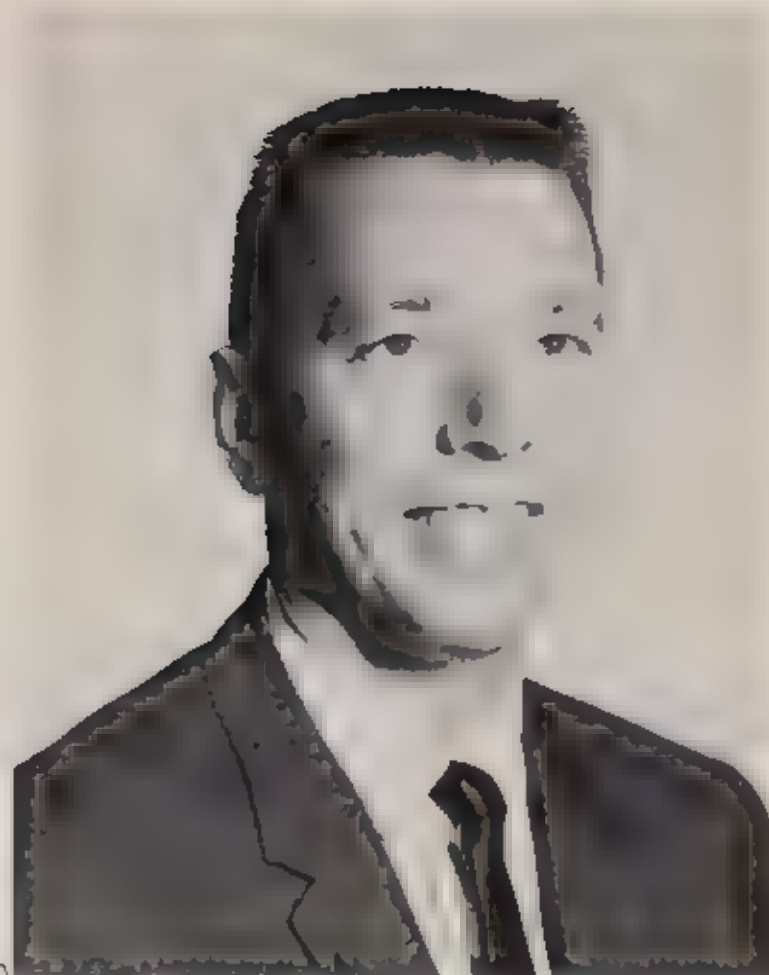

What Rio Americano is now or becomes in the future is in the hands, hearts, and minds of each of you. You are building the reputation of this school. Do not fail your parents, future students of Rio, or your children who may be attending this school.

The sizzle of food, the hum of a sewing machine, the buzz of a saw, and the scratching of pencils combine to form familiar sounds from the H-Building. An atmosphere of easy-concentration prevails as students apply their skills to various and sundry subjects.

The cooking class learns to boil water.

Mr. Jones watches over Chuck Caldwell and Ron Selby as they choose their tools.

Practice makes perfect.

Hard effort brings good results.

"If you blow hard enough, Ron, it may come out!"

Carol Fortune hunts for a book.

LIBRARY

"Oh, Paula,
where are you?"

Squeaking high notes and tumbling bass from the music room contrast to the humming silence of the library. On campus these industrious students work on both silence and harmony.

SCIENCE

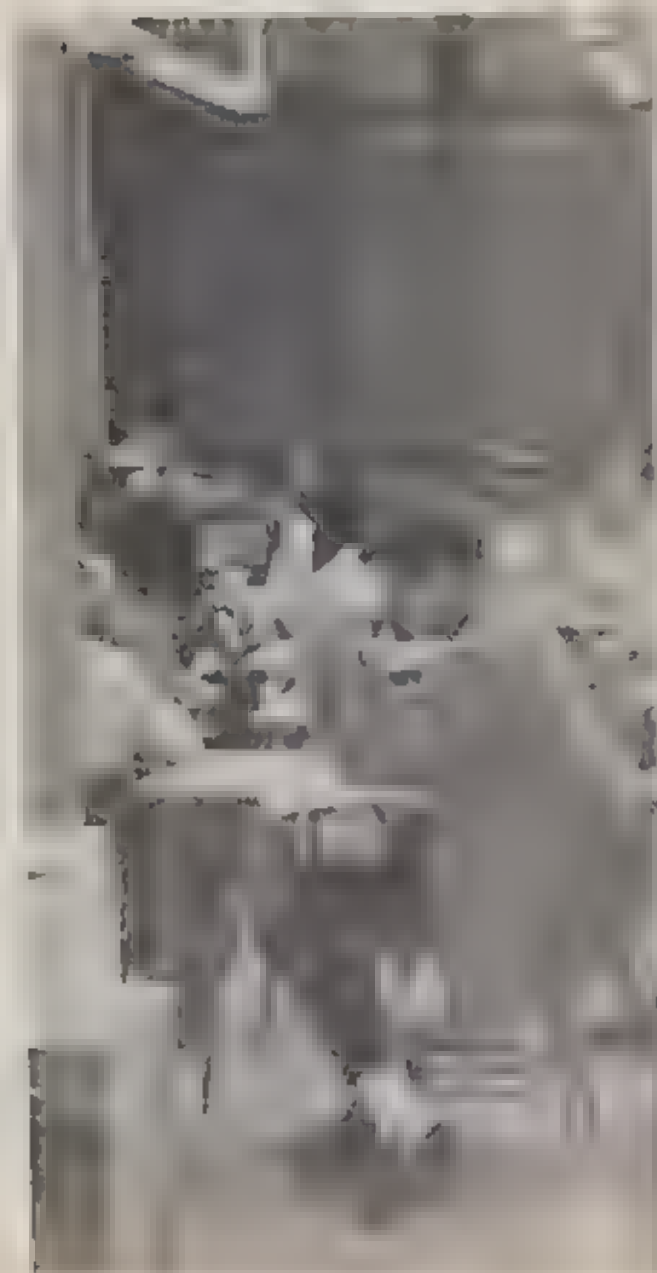

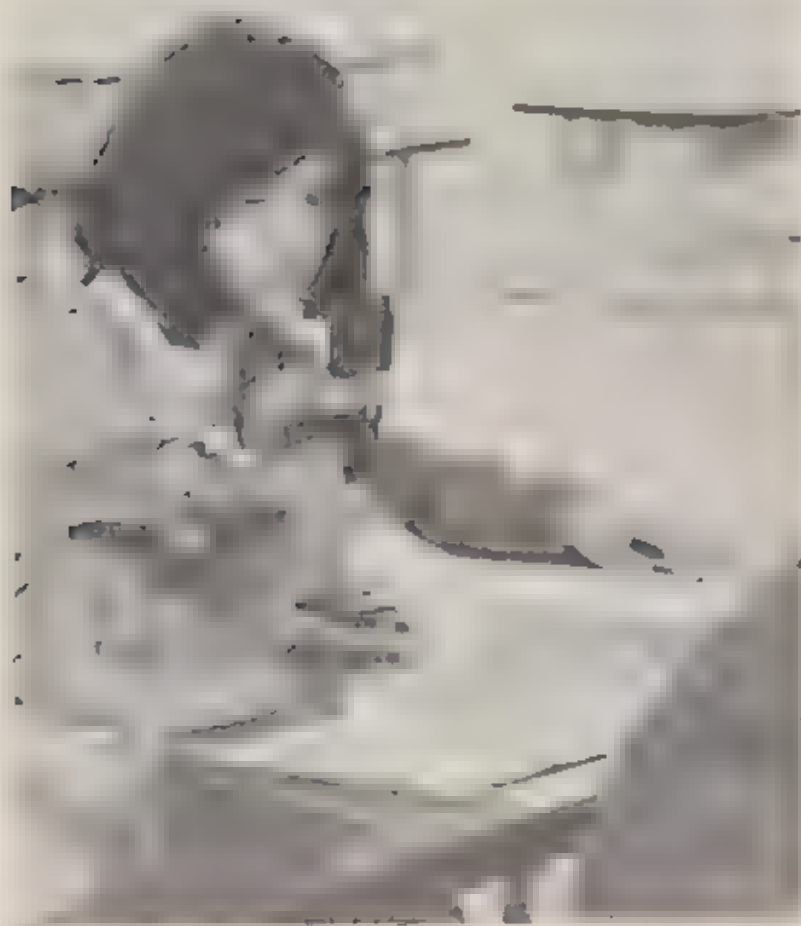

The Future Intellectuals...

Witches brew concocted from leftover frog legs and dried up worms send a savory smell throughout the science rooms, located in the A-wing.

Rubber gloves encase the hands of industrious workers as they make delicate touches on dissecting projects. And the thunderous sounds of waves crashing onto the beaches of Ripple Tanks cover the frustrated mumblings of physics students as they try to explain their observations.

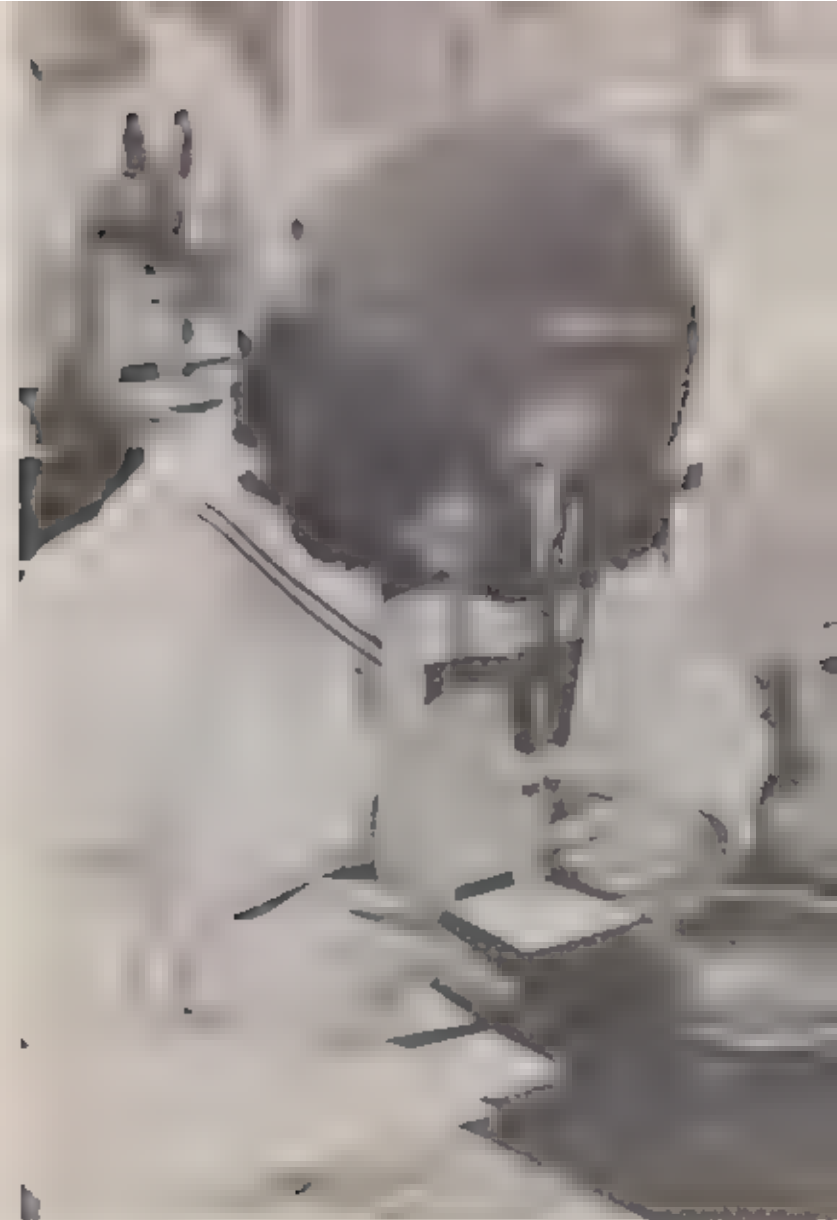

A peek into the world of Chemistry.

"I've got it now!!!"

Mrs. Romine helps lost students find their way.

Joanne Woodruff discovers a new world under the microscope.

Students dedicated to the art of physics.

MATHEMATICS AND

Mathematics is found by many to be an exciting, stimulating and intellectually invigorating subject.

Triangles and equations spiced with George Washingtons and Hitlers intermix to make up the mathematics and social science section of the school.

Lecturing teachers give out a continuous barrage of facts to note taking students writing furiously in order to catch every statement.

Geometry is backbreaking work.

"Why does one always have to have a reason?"

SOCIAL SCIENCES

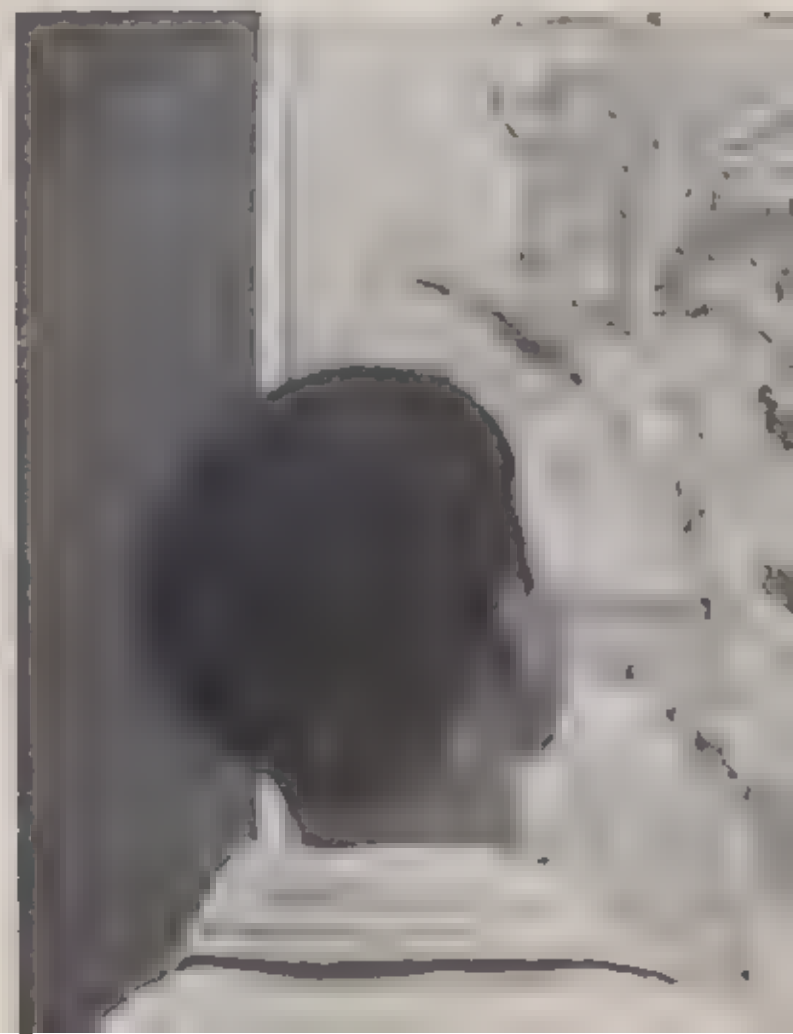

"Oh, it's way down here in the
'Boondocks'!"

"In history there are many battles that we study. Among them are the Battle of Bull Run, Battle of Vicksburg and the Battle of the Bulge."

"Oh where, oh where...???"

Mrs. Holmes gives her class key thoughts.

BUSINESS

Fingers fly over polished keys and adding machines click as students apply their knowledge to business.

Shorthand and bookkeeping pave their way for future students interested in competing in the business world. Who knows, a financial wizard may be in our midst!

Handwritten note:
 "Time's up?" Speed and accuracy keep "Trisha" Leverty on her toes during the class period.

"Time's up?" Speed and accuracy keep "Trisha" Leverty on her toes during the class period.

Wendy Woollet finds typing takes many hours of work and concentration.

Mr. Metcalf dictates to his business class.

ENGLISH AND

Carol Lovell does out-of-class work.

Joe thinks of everything but English.

"It's lucky Miss Natalie isn't looking, C.P."

FOREIGN LANGUAGES

HELLO, GUTENTAG, BONJOUR, BUENOS DIAS. From the B-Wing to the language lab, the daily grind of dialogue, projects, and grammar proceed. Each language provides a better understanding and brings a closer relationship with the various countries.

Lonnie Mar and Rosel Hatton decorate for a German Christmas.

"Red Alert, the Dean just walked in."

Lynette studies French, in French class!

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

"Too pretty for words" - Patti Born shows her style during girls' swimming session.

Jim Christensen gets into the swing of things as he tests his skill in PE.

"Friendly persuasion"-Ron Sumner and Ben Campbell demonstrate a judo hold.

AND DRIVER TRAINING

Just as the knack of calisthenics, gymnastics, and other P. E. activities are caught on and just as soon as some people begin to show their proficiency in this field, the call to Driver's Training hails all prospective students to learn the art of driving. Eager beavers are put behind the wheel while qualified teachers with a must for courage sit down to instruct these students in all of the safety rules needed for good driving. Even as most of the students enter without any knowledge of how to drive, the outcome is a good result of trustworthy drivers ready for the family car.

"What do you mean the door's locked?"

Wendy Ames explains her reasons for taking Driver's Training to Mr. Lattimer.

Darlene makes a right turn through the wall of the driver training trailer.

Sometimes it's nice to have help in your studies.

SPECIAL EDUCATION AND

Mary Grunewald studies in Mr. Kine's Special Education room.

THE
FIRE

Rio's first BONFIRE Rally was held on Friday, February 25th with the Freshman, Sophomore, and Junior classes competing against each other. After a few hectic days of dragging brush, plywood planks, and vegetable crates, the Juniors won with the honor of having the largest pile. Even though a slight drizzle accompanied the celebration, all three fires burned brightly as the RAIDERS went on to fight the APACHES from Encina. And to complete the day a dance was held after the game.

MASCOTS

The enthusiasm of the parents showed each time Rio scored.

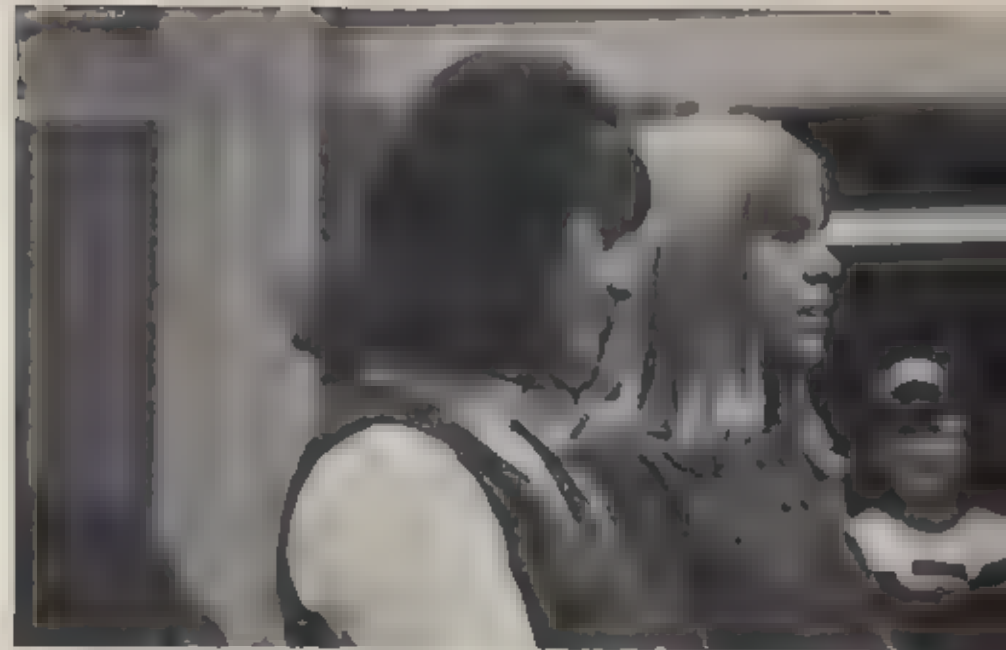

PARENTS' BOOSTER CLUB

The tremendous effort of the parents, put forth a fantastic amount of spirit at all our Rio games. Pom-pom wavers, booster-button supporters, and rooter cap wearers helped to cheer the team on. Where would Rio be without the support of our loyal parents?

One of our most loyal supporters, Mr. Montgomery, attended nearly every game, in spite of the rain or cold.

As basic spirit organizations, Pep and Honor Pep did a fine job instilling spirit around school. Publicizing events, helping with the rooting section, and wearing white to all the games were some of the things they did. The club members observed rallies at other schools, sponsored a dance, and met with Encina to exchange ideas at a luncheon.

THE RA'ETTES

With the start of their second year, the RA'ettes strived for more perfection and even better performances. The sleepy-head enthusiasts gathered for early morning practices at 6:30 a.m. from three to four times a week.

The RA'ettes have helped to spread Rio's image and have promoted a bigger interest in the school with their entertainment for the audiences at halftime. Performances at American River Junior College, Sacramento State College, the Camelia Bowl, and far away Fresno were great successes and instilled an even greater excitement for next year.

INTERNATIONAL CLUB

The International Club is composed of students studying a foreign language: French, Spanish, German and Latin. The purpose is to gain a better understanding of the Continents abroad and to assist the school in sponsoring social activities.

Members learn to appreciate the cultures and traditions of the people in the country of which they are studying the language.

FRENCH CLUB

Parlez-vous Français? The French Club does. French films enlightened the students to study the French people more closely and to better appreciate the language.

SPANISH CLUB

Los Distinguidos, which means "the distinguished ones," strives to make a language club fun, while at the same time making it useful and educational.

In December Los Distinguidos gave a Christmas party for the children at the Washington Neighborhood Center. Members provided decorations and games as well as refreshments for the children's enjoyment.

The members of Los Distinguidos have surely made the club deserving of its name.

From a sunny afternoon game, to a sopping night hassle, the team never gave up. During a season punctuated with injuries - eight starters out at one time - many an opposing team registered surprise when the "underdog" Raiders crossed the goal line one or more times.

Although Rio was expected to be the cellar team in all aspects, Del Campo found itself outscored by Rio in total points and nearly masssored in the Raider/Cougar game.

The team was many a time spurred on by Lance Dom, who placed third in the Metropolitan Area as pass receiver. He was also All Conference, Most Valuable Lineman, and scored our first varsity touchdown.

It was the outstanding support of the entire team that helped Rio make such a good beginning in her first year of varsity competition.

Placing second in the district with five wins and two losses, this year's Sophomore football team ended a great season.

CROSS COUNTRY

COACH WAYNE ROBERTS

Through the efforts of the Cross Country team we managed to win the third place trophy at the Folsom Invitational Meet. Five of our men, freshman Dave Wallis, sophomore Pete Boutin, and varsity Dave Shewmaker, Dave Anderson, and Cliff Page, qualified to go to the Sectional after being picked from the District Meet.

Lyle Fortado set the school record for 2.9 miles on our Cross Country course. Unfortunately he was unable to compete in the District Meet due to injuries.

With the return of these runners, and others like them, we expect a great season next year.

Track is a sport which most closely resembles a three-ringed circus, with high jump, pole vault, shot-put, relays, dashes, distant runs and many more interesting events to keep one busy.

Individuals on each of Rio's two track teams proved their worth by exciting performances throughout the season. The Freshman/Sophomore team was the most valuable this year and had the best record.

We can look forward to an exciting season next year with this year's Freshmen and Sophomores moving up to fill in the present lack of depth in the Varsity team.

TRACKETTES

When the race is over and the scores are tabulated, quick and efficient members of Rio's Trackettes run the results from the finish line to the tabulation table. This newly formed group of girls is under the direction of coach Mel Ross. Due to the help of the Trackettes in running things smoothly, we were able to hold many successful home meets.

Sure, a checking account helps you organize financially. But another big benefit is safety. When you lose a check, you don't lose money. And you're safe from misunderstandings about bill payment, because each canceled check is a receipt. Crocker-Citizens offers Special Checking Accounts at low cost, with no minimum balance required, and Regular Checking Accounts, which cost little or nothing, depending upon account activity and balance.
